PASTOR DR. QUINTIN P. WOODS, SR.

Pastor Quintin P. Woods, Sr. was born in Birmingham, Alabama on October 14, 1971. Pastor Woods is the youngest of thirteen children of Pastor Dr. Calvin W. Woods, Sr., Pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama and the late Sister Lucille Woods. This fourth generational licensed and ordained pastor and preacher has been preaching for thirty years and pastoring for over twenty-seven years. He has also been happily married to Mrs. Tramella Woods for almost twenty-three years, and they are the proud parents of one daughter, Quinteria Tramece Woods, and one son, Quintin Prescott Woods, Jr.

Pastor Woods attended A. H. Parker High School in Birmingham, Alabama where he graduated with the 11th highest GPA in a Senior Class of almost 300 seniors. He was Vice President of his Senior Class and Captain of the Varsity Football Team in which he was a starter for all four years. He also represented the entire student body in helping to select a new principal for the high school his senior year. He is a graduate of the University of North Alabama where he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Marketing. While attending the University of North Alabama, Pastor Woods was the captain of the 1993 University of North Alabama Football Team where they were Division II National Champions. He was voted #1 by the coaching staff as the most reliable player on the entire team that could be counted on the most. He was the fastest and strongest pound for pound player on the team. He was invited to the NFL and CFL combine. Instead of pursuing his NFL dreams, he submitted to the Lord's Will to run touchdowns for Him in full time ministry. While in college at the University Of North Alabama, he was active in Athletes For Christ, a Bible Teacher, active in the Student Fellowship, and a Dorm Counselor.

He has also earned a Bachelor of Theology Degree from the Birmingham Easonian Baptist Bible College where he was an honor student. He has also earned a Master's of Theology Degree from Rushing Springs School of Theology and a Master's of Divinity Degree from Christian Bible College and Seminary. In 2003, he earned a Doctorate of Divinity Degree from Christian Bible College and Seminary. He is also certified to teach and facilitate on the local, state, and national level having completed the COPP Program in 2006. He is certified to teach two courses in the COPP and Congress of Christian Education on the Local, State, and National level. In the Spring of 2017 he receive an Honorary Doctorate of Divinity Degree from St. Thomas Christian University.

Also, while a student-athlete at the University Of North Alabama, he was called to pastor the East Florence Missionary Baptist Church in Florence, Alabama. After serving and worshiping God at East Florence Missionary Baptist Church, Pastor Woods was pastor and organizer of Mount Canaan Baptist Church in Sheffield, Alabama. After graduating from the University of North Alabama, he resigned as pastor of Mount Canaan Baptist Church and returned home to Shiloh Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama where he served as an Associate Minister under his father. In February of 1996, Pastor Quintin P. Woods, Sr. embarked upon as Pastor of the Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church in Anniston, Alabama in which he faithfully served right at almost nineteen years.

A tremendous amount of growth, development, expansion, and mortgage burning took place under his pastorate and administration at Mount Calvary. He is a called, chosen, and commissioned Born Again Servant of God. Truly, souls were saved, lives were transformed and positively impacted, spirits were lifted, and many were blessed and helped under the Pastoral Leadership of Pastor Quintin P. Woods, Sr. To God Be The Glory For It All!
